

SPACE DEBRIS CONFERENCE

DebriSolver Competition

An international competition launched by the Saudi Space Agency to spark the most innovative solutions to manage space debris challenges.

► Objectives

Foster global innovation using space data.

Enhance research and development through partnerships with leading space organizations.

Empower human capabilities to tackle space challenges

► Themes

Technical

Develop innovative technological solutions.

Regulatory

Propose innovative regulatory frameworks.

Economical

Design models for economic sustainability.

Social

Evaluate the societal impacts of space debris.

Registration Deadline

30 August 2025

Join now and be part of the journey

Towards a Sustainable Space Future